CHAD is surprised by your email circulating the December POW.

The procedure is that the Mission assuming the presidency of that month is the one authorized to do so.

We think it is a profound lack of responsibility from the Australian Mission.

I hope that we will continue to respect ourselves as non permanent members of the Security Council.

don't mention to other countries that we have this. This will change - the Syria humanitarian date is currently in play, for example. As we understand it, the open debate on 15/12 will focus on UNSC/AU relations, with a particular focus on peacekeeping, and the 19/12 open debate will focus on Counter-terrorism in Africa.
