Steve, Kataryna,

Just to keep you up to date, Matthew Lee asked UN Spokesman (b)(6) about how much weight the UN places on complaints about journalists when considering renewing accreditation. He specifically cited our complaint. (b)(6) said he would not comment. MP3 of the exchange attached as an fyi.

Lee has also tweeted a link to the VOA story on his blog. It's obvious now he's trying to get as much attention for it as he can – BIG GOVERNMENT is now going after LITTLE BLOGGER.
